

Types of Questioning Data Collection

Ask a colleague to observe your class and record the types of questions.

Gathering Information Students recall facts, definitions, or procedures/processes	Making the Learning Visible Students discuss their learning and make connections among ideas and relationships
Probing Thinking Students explain, elaborate, or clarify their thinking, including articulating the steps in solution methods or the completion of a task	Encouraging Reflection and Justification Students reveal deeper understanding of their reasoning and actions, including making an argument for the validity of their work

Tally Chart

Gathering Information	Probing Thinking	Making the Learning Visible	Encouraging Reflection and Justification