

APPENDIX A: Student Assessment Responsibilities

Students are encouraged to do their best to demonstrate their knowledge and skills to themselves, the school, and their families. Some parts of the assessment might be easy for them and some parts might be difficult.

For state assessments to accurately reflect what a student should focus on:

Expected Conduct:

- Doing their best on the state assessment.
- Doing their own work.
- Making sure they understand and follow the assessment directions.
- Respect other students during the assessment administration.

Inappropriate and Prohibited Conduct:

- Communication with anyone about the assessment questions, during and after the administration. This includes written, electronic, verbal, or gestured forms of communication.
- Copying another student's answers.
- Requesting or accepting help from another person.
- Answering an assessment question or any part of a question for another student.
- Using any material or equipment that is not allowed by the instructions.
- Using prohibited devices such as phones or calculators.
- Doing anything to unfairly affect your score or the score of another student.
- Taking assessment questions from the room.
