SECTION 1. Background Checks

All employees of Child Development Services are required to obtain Criminal History Records Check ("CHRC") approval from the Maine Department of Education ("DOE") based on fingerprints. The DOE requires a fee that is due with the initial application and an additional fee upon request for fingerprinting at an approved location. All fees associated with the CHRC are at the applicant's expense.

- Have you completed the CHRC approval process through the DOE?  Yes  No If yes, please provide a copy of your CHRC approval card.

Additionally, any Child Development Services employee whose job duties include the care or supervision of children, or unsupervised access to children, must obtain a background check from the Maine Department of Health and Human Services Office of Child and Family Services, also based on fingerprints. There is no fee to obtain the necessary background checks for childcare employment eligibility.

- Have you completed the childcare eligibility background check through DHHS?  Yes  No If yes, please provide a copy of your DHHS eligibility letter.
