| Content Objective                               | I can use feedback to plan for revising my writing. (W.2.2.a, W.3.2, W.2, R.11.2.c, R.11.2.d)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Language Objective                              | I can discuss my writing with a partner, following the routine for providing feedback. (SL.1.2)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Vocabulary                                      | explanation: a genre of writing whose purpose is to explain a phenomenon in sequenceexplanation steps: the phenomenon explained, in orderfeedback: specific, helpful suggestions given to improve workimage: a representation of something in the form of a drawing, photograph, etc.                                                                                                                                                                                      |

The first two questions are about the explanation steps. We used these questions when we gave feedback about our class explanation last week. The first question is, “Does it include all explanation steps?” If the explanation includes all steps, the reviewer will check “Yes.” If not, they will check “No.” If steps are missing, talk about what is missing, and write the steps in the box below. The second question is, “Are the explanation steps in the correct sequence?” If they are in the right order, the reviewer will check “Yes.” If not, they will check “No.” If the sequence needs to be changed, discuss the change that needs to be made and write a plan in the box. After discussing the explanation steps, you will look carefully at the images. The third question is, “Do the images clearly show how the landform changes over time?” If the images are clear and show the change, the reviewer will check “Yes.” If not, they will check “No.” If the images are unclear or do not show how the landform changes over time, talk about how they can be revised and write a plan in the box. The fourth and last question is, “Do the images match the words?” If they match, the reviewer will check “Yes.” If not, they will check “No.” If they do not match, discuss changes that can be made to the images or words to ensure that they match. Write the plan in the box below. After providing feedback to one partner, repeat the process to provide feedback to the other partner. |
