

“Natural Erosion Can Be Good”

1. Read these questions with your partner:

- What is this text mostly about?
- What are some things that happen because of natural erosion?
- What are floodplains?
- How does natural erosion by a river happen?
- What is sediment?
- Why else is natural erosion good?

2. Read “Natural Erosion Can Be Good” with your partner. Annotate your text. Underline important information and write question marks.

3. After reading, discuss what you learned about natural erosion. Use the questions above.

Find details in the text that support your thinking.

You might say:

I learned _____.

Here, the text tells us that _____.

I think _____, because in the text it says _____.

Name: _____

With your partner, write what you learned about natural erosion.
