

Family Welcome Questionnaire

*This document is from the Family Welcome Questionnaire in Beyond the Bake Sale: The Essential Guide to the Family-School Partnership

Purpose

This questionnaire is designed to help school staff learn more about their students' families. It is important to emphasize that this information will be kept strictly confidential. These questions are not meant to be all inclusive or exclusive. Many questions suggested here appear in Sabrina Hope Kind and A. Lin Goodwin, Culturally Responsive Parent Involvement (Washington, D.C.: American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education, 2003).

When to Use

This can be done when students enroll in the school, at the school open house, at parent-teacher conferences, or at parent activities. This can be done in several steps and places and is not necessarily intended to be done in its entirety during one period of time (i.e. during a conference, at an Open House, etc.).

How to Use

Although this can be given as a survey to families we strongly recommend that the questions below be asked face-to-face, rather than in a written survey. Schools can use this information to inform how to best engage families as well as data to inform next steps in their Family Engagement Plan.

Suggested script:

Hello (name), our school wants to know more about its families and their rich and interesting cultural heritage. With this information, our school can plan better programs to build on our students' home cultures. We also want to learn more about how families would like to help. Is it alright if we ask you some questions?
