

Grading for ELs Opinionnaire Activity

At the start of the session, read the statements below and check the appropriate box in the first column to indicate whether you agree or disagree with the statement.

When you've completed the session, review the statements and check whether you agree or disagree in the column to the right. Have your ideas changed?

Start of Session		Statements	End of Session
Agree	Disagree		Agree	Disagree
		Most of the work completed in a course should be included in calculating an EL's grade.
		2. ELs should not receive zeros for missing work.
		3. Participation and effort should be included in an EL's grade.
		4. Grades motivate students, including ELs.
		5. Grading is essential for ELs' learning.
		6. Grading ELs should not be subjective.

5 Pillars of Equitable Grading for English Learners Checklist

Directions:

Reflect on the steps of each pillar and select Yes, Somewhat, or No. In the final column to the right, note your thoughts including which areas you feel are the most critical in your context.

Do I/we	Yes	Somewhat	No	Notes
Pillar 1: Define the content and language standard(s)
Develop content and language learning objectives for ELs based on standards
Share content and language learning objectives with ELs
Identify success criteria for ELs
Share models of strong work with ELs
Pillar 2: Incorporate scaffolding to support ELs in achieving	g the sta	andards
Use scaffolded materials, instruction, and strategic grouping to remove barriers for ELs
Select scaffolds based on individual EL strengths and needs
Set expectations for gradual removal of scaffolding, as appropriate

Do I/we	Yes	Somewhat	No	Notes
Pillar 3: Support ELs' progress toward mastery
Provide ELs sufficient time and opportunities for learning
Focus on ELs' achievement
Support ELs' late work
Use homework as non-graded practice
Pillar 4: Assess ELs' progress equitably
Assess for mastery
Scaffold assessments for ELs based on individual EL strengths and needs
Assign individual scores
Provide separate scores by progress, process, and performance
Pillar 5: Involve ELs, families, & colleagues
Explain grade level expectations, the process and the report card clearly
Involve ELs and families in the entire process
Co-grade (ESOL and content teachers) to ensure objectivity and understanding
