KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Randy Judkins

INSPIRATIONAL SPEAKER

Randy Judkins is a unique inspirational speaker and has presented his creative programs on laughter, change, stress, self esteem and teamwork for professional groups, school staffs & administrators, students and corporations in over 25 U.S. states, Canada and Europe.

He has also served as a featured keynote presenter and provided a humor component at Wellness Conferences for educational systems across the country including VT, NH and his home state of Maine.

Randy has instructed at the Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey's Clown College in Florida, and has served as a character consultant for a Hollywood film.

He had the privilege of teaching master classes in character and physical comedy at The Juilliard School of Drama in New York City.

Through an annual event sponsored by the Patrick Dempsey Center for Hope and Healing, for the past 12 years, Randy has cycled to raise funds to support cancer patients.

A few years ago he ran in the popular Beach to Beacon 10-K Road Race along with 5000 runners while juggling three balls the entire 6.2 miles. He finished the race under an hour and he did not drop a ball.
