

Pilot Name: MIE's RREV Pilot Project (Project will be named in collaboration with students and community)

School/District Name: Maine Indian Education

Contact: Beth Clifford

Overview:

MIE's RREV Pilot Project empowers middle school students to pursue their paths and always put first their Wabanaki knowledge by providing learning opportunities that:

- Engage students in learning pathways that will build connections between students and their culture, community, and school
- Foster the development of a strong cultural foundation and identity through daily experiences with language, history, and practices based on a Wabanaki world view
- Teach stewardship of land, water, and natural resources, through cultural knowledge, mentorships, and project-based learning

Contact:

Name Beth Clifford

Email beth.clifford@maineindianeducation.org

phone (207) 454-2126

The Maine Department of Education's Rethinking Remote Education Ventures (RREV) project is 100% funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Education Stabilization Fund awarded through the Rethink K-12 Education Models (REM) grant. Maine was awarded $ 16,958,613.

The contents of this letter were developed under a grant from the Department of Education. However, those contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government.