Summer Reading Challenge 2023

Guidance for School Principals

- Review the 2023 Read to Ride Summer Reading Challenge information sheet.
- Register your school through this link by June 23, 2023: Read to Ride Registration
- Disseminate the challenge information to any PK-8 students in your school. Consider including a link from your school website to the Read to Ride Summer Reading Challenge link on the Maine Department of Education website.
- Feel free to tailor this opportunity to fit your local context. Combine this opportunity with any other summer reading program/challenge in which your students may participate through your school and/or community (e.g. Scholastic's Summer Reading Challenge, public libraries, etc.). Consider soliciting local level prizes to award to students for participation in this challenge, such as books, memberships to YMCAs and Boys & Girls Clubs, movie tickets, etc.
- Collect passports from students by September 22, 2023.
- Hold the school level drawing for two school level student winners and email Dee Saucier (danielle.m.saucier@maine.gov) the names of two students no later than 5:00 pm on September 29, 2023.
- The state level drawing will be held in October and principals will be notified of winning students in October 2023.
