

DECISION TREE FOR NURSE DELEGATION

This decision tree assists Registered Nurses (RN) working in any setting in determining whether it is appropriate to delegate a specific nursing task. Remember the nursing process: assessment, diagnosis, planning, implementation, and evaluation may not be delegated.

The school nurse (RN) must assess the student's nursing care needs and setting to create an individual health care plan before answering the questions in this decision tree.

