

Open-ended Prompts to support children's work in Centers

- What inspired you?
- What is your plan?
- How can you work together? How will you decide who does what part?
- What will you do next?
- What other materials might you use?
- How will you show your idea(s)?
- Tell me about your _____.
- What is your story about?
- What additional information do you need? What research do you need to do?
- I notice _____. I wonder _____ (for example, I notice you are using rectangular blocks. I wonder what you will do to make your structure stronger).

Open-ended Prompts to support children's work in Centers

- What inspired you?
- What is your plan?
- How can you work together? How will you decide who does what part?
- What will you do next?
- What other materials might you use?
- How will you show your idea(s)?
- Tell me about your _____.
- What is your story about?
- What additional information do you need? What research do you need to do?
- I notice _____. I wonder _____ (for example, I notice you are using rectangular blocks. I wonder what you will do to make your structure stronger).