WHAT IS THIS MODULE?

In this module learners will increase their own awareness of becoming a steward of our water while conserving and preserving our planet's water supply, especially in what is now called Maine.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

As you come to understand what it means to be a steward of the water, you will discover that progress has been made - yet how much still needs to be done. Your goal, as you journey through this module, will be to increase your knowledge on becoming a steward of water as you conserve and preserve our planet's water.
