Dear Sir/Ms:

The following question has been received:

Question: It is understood that the three lowest prices will be on call for this task order. My question is whether the Contractor who was lowest price at the time of bid gets first refusal on the individual assignments or does the Department give each assignment to any of the three lowest Contractors?

Response: No, the low bidder will be determined for each individual task order. Please refer to Special Provision 103, Basis of Award.

Consider this information prior to submitting your bid on February 16, 2011.

Sincerely,

For Scott Bickford
Contracts & Specifications Engineer
