Amendment No. 1

Dear Sir/Ms.:

The following questions have been received:

Question: Can Salt Be stored in the Milo DOT Salt Shed? On Elm Street

Response: For this contract, the Department is willing to allow the Contractor the use of its Milo facility. This facility has a salt shed located on the lot and space will be provided in the back. Should the Contractor choose to use this facility, such use shall be in accordance with good housekeeping practices for all operations conducted at the site and the contractor shall be fully responsible for any damage the Contractor may cause. The Department shall retain the right to inspect the premises at any time. If, at any time, the Department determines that the Contractor is not using the facility in an appropriate or responsible manner, as solely determined by the Department, the Contractor may be given notice to vacate the premises. Such action may or may not result in termination of this contract, depending upon whether the Contractor has alternative facility options that meet the requirements of this contract.

Question: Can salt be stored in the Long A Twp salt Shed?

Response: Yes, Refer to the Contract for Snow & Ice Control on page 22, number 9 Facility Requirements letter D of the bid book. "For this contract, the Department is willing to allow the Contractor the use of its Long A Twp. facility. This facility has a small salt shed and garage bay located on the lot. Outdoor areas may be used to store straight sand; however, sand mixed with salt or straight salt may NOT be stored outdoors anywhere on the property. Should the Contractor choose to use this facility, such use shall be in accordance with good housekeeping practices for all operations conducted at the site and the contractor shall be fully responsible for all utility costs, as well as any damage the Contractor may cause. The Department shall retain the right to inspect the premises at any time. If, at any time, the Department determines that the Contractor is not using the facility in an appropriate or responsible manner, as solely determined by the Department, the Contractor may be given notice to vacate the premises. Such action may or may not result in termination of this contract, depending upon whether the Contractor has alternative facility options that meet the requirements of this contract."

Question: Can salt-sand be stored in the Long A Twp lot if we erect a temporary building/cover?

Response: Yes, The structure must be of the size and type to protect the salt-sand from the elements. The Contractor shall submit to the Contract Administrator the proposed structure for approval by the Department Within seven days of the Executed Contract. The Department and the Contractor shall agree to the location of the structure prior to placement. The Contractor shall remove the structure and restore the area to its original state within 30 days after the Contract expiration Date.

Question: Can a Portable office/ Warming center be stored and used the Long A Twp lot?

Response: Yes, the Department will allow the use of electricity if necessary and the Contractor shall be billed for the additional cost to the Department. The Contractor shall be responsible to provide water and portable restrooms for their employee(s) at no cost to the Department. The Department and the Contractor shall agree to the location of the structure prior to placement.

Question: Is Milo facility available for salt storage

Response: For this contract, the Department is willing to allow the Contractor the use of its Milo facility. This facility has a salt shed located on the lot and space will be provided in the back. Should the Contractor choose to use this facility, such use shall be in accordance with good housekeeping practices for all operations conducted at the site and the contractor shall be fully responsible for any damage the Contractor may cause. The Department shall retain the right to inspect the premises at any time. If, at any time, the Department determines that the Contractor is not using the facility in an appropriate or responsible manner, as solely determined by the Department, the Contractor may be given notice to vacate the premises. Such action may or may not result in termination of this contract, depending upon whether the Contractor has alternative facility options that meet the requirements of this contract.

Consider these changes and information prior to submitting your bid on September 16, 2026.

Sincerely,

George M. A. Macdougall P.E.
