Director Champion raised concerns about shortcomings in these rules. Director Champion suggested a committee to discuss the rules. Chair Silver expressed interest in further discussing the issue via an appropriate means. Chair Silver suggested another letter be sent to exclusions who remain on the casino's lists only to try to alleviate confusion. Director Champion confirmed a new letter could be sent if the Board wanted to do that. Board member Greene stated that there are multiple issues that a committee might discuss to develop a comprehensive response instead of a piecemeal response.

Chair Silver requested that the specific options for this process be presented and discussed at the next meeting.
