Business Casual Dress Code Guidelines

Dress and Grooming: The dress and grooming of DVEM employees shall be clean, neat, in a manner appropriate for their assignments and in accordance with any additional standards established by their supervisors and approved by the Commissioner's office.

Regulations-Standards:

A dress code gives us a standard for our professional appearance. It enables employees to project a professional, business-like image while experiencing the comfort advantages of more casual and relaxed clothing. The DVEM dress code applies to all employees, including full and part-time staff members, unless other specific job-related standards are established and approved by the Commissioner's office. Business casual dress is the standard for this dress code.

Because all casual clothing is not suitable for the office, these guidelines will help you determine what is appropriate to wear to work. Clothing that works well for the beach, yard work, dance clubs, exercise sessions, and sports contests may not be appropriate for a professional appearance at work.

Clothing that reveals too much cleavage, your back, your chest, your stomach or your underwear is not appropriate for a place of business, even in a business casual setting.

Clothing should be neat in appearance. Torn, dirty or frayed clothing is unacceptable. All seams must be finished. Any clothing that has words, terms, or pictures that may be offensive to other employees is unacceptable.

Below is a general overview of acceptable business casual attire. Items that are not appropriate for the office are listed, too. Neither list is all-inclusive. No dress code can cover all contingencies. If you experience uncertainty about acceptable, professional business casual attire for work, please ask your supervisor or a Director for Human Resources.

Slacks, Pants, and Suit Pants

Slacks that are similar to Dockers and other makers of cotton or synthetic material pants, wool pants, flannel pants and nice looking dress synthetic pants are acceptable. Capri pants are acceptable if they are mid-calf or longer in length. Inappropriate slacks or pants include jeans (except on designated days), sweatpants, exercise pants, short shorts, Bermuda shorts, leggings, and any spandex or other form-fitting pants such as bike clothing.

SUBJECT: DVEM Policy 14-02, Policy on Appropriate Civilian Employee Attire in the Work Place

Skirts, Dresses, and Skirted Suits

Casual dresses and skirts, and skirts that are split at or below the knee are acceptable. Dress and skirt length should be no shorter than four inches above the knee. Short, tight skirts that ride halfway up the thigh are inappropriate for work. Shorts, skorts, ultra-short skirts and spaghetti strap dresses are inappropriate for the office.

Shirts, Tops, Blouses, and Jackets

Casual shirts, golf/polo shirts, tops, blouses, sweaters, and turtlenecks are acceptable. Most suit jackets or sport jackets are also acceptable attire for the office, if they violate none of the listed guidelines. Inappropriate attire include tops that are cut too low, tank tops, bandeau/tube tops, midriff tops, halter-tops, tops with bare shoulders, shirts with potentially offensive words, terms, logos, pictures, cartoons, or slogan, and t-shirts unless worn under another blouse, shirt, jacket, or jumper. Top length should be long enough that bare skin is not revealed when seated. T-shirts, sweatshirts and sweat suits may not be worn as an outer garment.

Shoes and Footwear

Shoes shall be soled and appropriate for the job responsibilities of personnel. Loafers, boots, flats, clogs, mules, strapped sandals, Birkenstocks, conservative athletic shoes, sneakers, dress heels, and leather deck shoes are acceptable. Flip-flops, Crocs and slippers are not acceptable in the office. Closed toe and closed heel shoes may be required in some departments and areas.

Jewelry, Makeup, Perfume, Cologne, Piercing and Tattoos

No excessive jewelry, makeup, perfume, or cologne is permitted; tasteful visible body piercings are allowed; tattoos must be in accordance with guidelines in paragraph 2 of the memorandum.
