VI. Unfinished Business

- a. Instructor series
 - i. Professionalism and Ethics (Joanne) – The small work group will convene with a date set today
 - ii. Instructor Updates (Dan) – Dan will set a time with Don to record this
- b. Protocol Course (Kevin Gurney) – Kevin has been waiting to hear what final protocols look like to move forward.
- c. CEH
 - i. Maine 2016 forward – Don discussed NCCP and how the process has worked thus far in states such as New Hampshire and Massachusetts.
 - 1. There has been a lot of positive feedback from individual service training officers within their states as this process offers a lot of guidance about trainings and is well structured to develop a plan for implementation.
- d. Protocols – Discussion about adding a solucortef statement to pediatrics section and acknowledge adults. Lots of discussion about spinal management and ensuring a consistent message.
 - i. There was a lot of discussion about the roll out process.
 - 1. Members expressed their concern for the consistency of the message form the MDPB. We have seen a lot of message pollution and dilution over the past protocol updates and with this update including spinal there is an increased concern. There was discussion about making MEMSEd available in a group format which Don is not 100% sure is possible but will look into it.
 - 2. Paul Froman motioned that all protocol updates be on MEMSEd with 6 regional question answer sessions, Seconded by John B 3 opposed 6 in favor
 - 3. Joanne asked that a minority report be written to which she agreed to do. Don asked that he receive the report by Monday at close of business for distribution to the appropriate parties.
