1. Complaint – Late Campaign Finance Report by Senate Candidate Stan Gerzofsky

Four residents of Brunswick Maine have submitted a complaint alleging that a campaign finance report filed by State Senate candidate Stan Gerzofsky under-reported his payments to a local newspaper, The Cryer, for campaign advertising. Mr. Gerzofsky described his spending to the staff of the Commission, which has amended the report on his behalf. The complainants request that a civil penalty be assessed because Mr. Gerzofsky filed a campaign finance report that did not substantially conform to the disclosure requirements in campaign finance law.
