Constitutional officers and the state auditor and all other executive employees must file a final financial disclosure statement within 45 days of leaving office or terminating employment that covers the calendar year of leaving office or terminating employment.

Updating Statement

An executive employee shall file an updated statement concerning the current calendar year if the income, reportable liabilities or positions of the executive employee or an immediate family member, excluding dependent children, substantially change from those disclosed in the employee's most recent statement. Substantial changes include, but are not limited to:

- a new employer that has paid the employee/immediate family member $2,000 or more during the current year,
- a source of income that has provided the employee/immediate family member with income that totals $2,000 or more during the current year, and
- · the acceptance of a new position with a for-profit or nonprofit firm or political action or ballot question committee.

The executive employee shall file the updated statement within 30 days of the substantial change in income, reportable liabilities or positions.
