

National Overdose Awareness Day: August 31

Events at Recovery Community Centers Around Maine

Portland Recovery Community Center (PRCC)

102 Bishop Street, Portland

Informational table 9:00 am – 3:00 pm sharing fact sheets, grey ribbons and bookmarks. Free Narcan available. PRCC will host a Virtual Remembrance Wall on Facebook August 28-31.

PRCC will join Portland Public Health at Post Office Park (intersection of Middle and Market St.) to host event from 11:00 am-1:00 pm.

INSPIRE

24 Church Street Ellsworth

Candlelight vigil at 5:30 – 6:00 pm with guest speakers, moment of silence, and photo board. Harm reduction supplies available.

DownEast Recovery Support Center

311 Main Street, Calais

Candlelight vigil at 6:00pm followed by a short remembrance walk.

DownEast Recovery Support Center

11 Free Street, Machias

Display in front of the center 1:00pm – 4:00 pm that will represent 25 lives lost to overdose in 2021 along with a memorial wall where pictures and/or stories can be added. There will be Naloxone, harm reduction, and recovery resources available.

Bangor Area Recovery Network

142 Center Street, Brewer

Details TBD

Lakes Region Recovery Center

25 Hospital Drive Suite E, Bridgton

All day from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm there will be a private memorial room to share messages, light flameless candles of remembrance and balloon cuts outs put in remembrance box that will move into new space.

Roads2Recovery

1 Water Street, Caribou

Candlelight vigil 6:00 – 7:00 pm at Roads2Recovery that will feature a moment of silence and guest speakers. People can decorate bags all day at the center in remembrance of a loved one lost to overdose.

Pir2Peer RCC

1009 Central Street, Millinocket

All day from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm, harm reduction supplies will be available as well as the opportunity to share memories of loved ones lost.

Save a Life

19 VFW Street, Lincoln

A candlelight vigil, time TBD.

