Matheson Pond is a typical example of a pond nearing the end of its productive life. The water has become extremely shallow due to silting in by sediment and decomposing vegetation, and it is warm at all depths during hot summer weather. The pond has little potential for supporting any kind of a fishery.
MATHESON POND
T8 R5 AND T9 R5, AROOSTOOK CO., MAINE
AREA 45 ACRES

0 1 2 3
TENTHS OF MILE