Upon killing a deer, bear, or Wild Turkey the hunter must immediately attach a tag bearing the hunter’s full name and address to the animal to cover transporting the animal to the nearest Game Registration Station.

Name______________________________________________
Address ____________________________________________
Year _________ License Number _______________________

Name______________________________________________
Address ____________________________________________
Year _________ License Number _______________________

Name______________________________________________
Address ____________________________________________
Year _________ License Number _______________________

Name______________________________________________
Address ____________________________________________
Year _________ License Number _______________________