New Law: Effective January 1st, 2022

A person who possesses a valid trapping license or a license that authorizes the hunting of bear, deer, moose, bobcat, and racoon may obtain a bear trapping permit.

Any person who wishes to obtain a bear trapping permit in the State of Maine must:

- have previously held a bear trapping permit in the State of Maine prior to January 1st, 2022, or;
- have successfully completed a State of Maine trapper safety course completed after January 1st, 1978 or;
- have successfully completed Maine's bear trapper education course.

When proof of competency cannot otherwise be provided, the applicant may substitute a signed affidavit stating that the applicant has successfully completed Maine's bear trapping education course or have held a valid Maine bear trapping permit prior to 2022.

To complete Maine's online bear trapper education course, please visit: maine.gov/ifw and visit safety courses under hunting & trapping.

Bear Trapping with Guide Permit

Bear Trapper Education Course Exemption:

A person who is trapping for bear under the supervision of and in the presence of a licensed Maine hunting guide (a guide who has successfully completed Maine's bear trapper education course).

For the purposes of this paragraph, "in the presence of" means in visual and voice contact without the use of visual or audio enhancement devices, including but not limited to binoculars, citizen band radios or electronic communication systems.

If you are applying for an exemption from the bear trapper education course and will be in the presence of and under the supervision of a Maine guide who has completed Maine's bear trapper education course, you must complete "Bear Trapping with Guide Permit Exemption" form and submit with your application. This form must accompany your application to obtain the Bear Trapping with Guide Permit. If this form is not accompanied with your application, your application will not be processed and will be returned to you.

To find "Bear Trapping with Guide Permit Exemption" form, please visit maine.gov/ifw/forms and navigate to the "Trapping" category at the bottom of the page.
