November Meeting Minutes (Jill Ward): Motion to approve by Tanya Pierson; Samantha Fenderson seconded. Adopted 16-0.

JJ Specialist Report (Linda Barry Potter):

Budget & Grants Update – No new updates on the budget from last month. FY23 award for $603,000 was released by OJJDP and available. Working to finalize budget for OJJDP, including ensuring there is enough in the Compliance Monitor line to cover the newly hired Compliance Monitor (CM). Contracts are all up to date and we will be closing out the FY18 and FY19 grants.

Compliance Monitoring Update – No new updates. New CM, Douglas Sanborn, starts in January.

Save the Date: 2024 CJJ Annual Conference – Scheduled for May 29 – June 1, 2024 in Washington DC. OJJDP 2024 National Conference celebrating the 50th anniversary of the JJDPA scheduled for November.

Grantee Update: MEIRS – Presentation by Patricia Buck and Hannah Conkin about the Circle of Care Restorative Practice Action and Advisory Group. Focus is on reducing racial disparities in school exclusion in Lewiston. See slides for additional information.

Agency Updates:

Agency representatives were asked to present on major budget items and initiatives for the coming year(s) to help inform JJAG’s 3-year planning process. DHHS presented in November and DOC, DOL, and DOE were on today’s agenda. DOE will finish its presentation at the January meeting and Ana Hicks from the Children’s Cabinet will also be presenting in January.

JJAG Minutes 12/15/2023 FINAL

DOC (Christine Thibeault): Christine presented the DOC's draft strategic plan for 2024 for the three general areas of Juvenile Community Corrections, Community Programs and Resources and Long Creek, which included a description of youth unmet needs as identified by JCCOs. The presentation also covered community and agency partnerships. See the DOC power point for additional details and the full presentation.

DOE (Megan Welter): Megan only got a few minutes into her presentation, Youth-Centered Initiatives with JJAG Implications, when the connection was lost. She will complete DOE's presentation (see slides) at the January meeting.

DOL (Samantha Fenderson): Samantha provided an overview of the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation supports and services. See the DOL power point for additional details and the full presentation.
