Resource	Description	Contact or Link
Maine CareerCenter	CareerCenters offer job search guidance to those who have been involved with the criminal justice system or are close to being released from incarceration. The Centers offer group and individual sessions for those who have been justice-involved and want assistance addressing certain issues, problems or situations that may come up such as long-term unemployment, addressing their history with employers, and planning for living expenses while attending college. CareerCenters also offer programs to help mitigate some barriers that this population faces. Two such programs are a federal bonding program offering free bonds to employers who hire individuals with a history with corrections and the Work Opportunity Tax Credit program where employers may receive a tax credit for hiring certain individuals who have been incarcerated.	Live Chat: MaineCareerCenter.gov Additional resources: careeronestop.org/ExOffender/default.aspx Phone: (207) 623-7981

FAQ

Frequently asked questions about the CareerCenter and the services we offer

What is the difference between a Maine JobLink account and a ReEmployME account?

Maine JobLink is where job-seekers can look for employment opportunities, post their resume, and/or find resources and information on employment services.

ReEmployMe is where individuals apply for unemployment benefits. You will first need to file an initial and then file weekly claims to receive benefits. This is where you will enter your work search information as part of your weekly claims and upload requested documentation.

Both a Maine JobLink and a ReEmployME account are required to be eligible for unemployment benefits. The CareerCenter can help you set up both accounts.

How to set up a JobLink account ajla.net/JobLink/QSG/create\_job\_seeker/index.html
