

Due to the federal government shutdown, the Employment Situation in Maine - September 2025 will not be released as scheduled on Tuesday, October 21. Monthly jobs and unemployment estimates are jointly produced by state workforce agencies and the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. The data release schedule will be updated after the federal government returns to normal operations.