that this Bill and this Resolve be received notwithstanding the cloture order. Does the Chair hear objection? The Chair hears none and the Bill and Resolve are received.

The SPEAKER: The gentleman from Limerick, Mr. Rowe, requests that this Bill be received notwithstanding the cloture order. Does the Chair hear objection? The Chair hears none and the Bill is received.

Thereupon, on motion of the same gentleman, the Bill (H. P. 766) was referred to the Committee on Public Utilities, ordered printed, and sent up for concurrence.

The SPEAKER: The House is proceeding under Orders of the Day.

Mr. Totman of Bangor was granted unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. TOTMAN: Mr. Speaker and Members of the House: A number of you have read the press releases referring to a rumored meeting on Tuesday night for the sole purpose of explaining and discussing the so-called Jacobs Report on Education. It is certainly not the intention of your leadership, and I perhaps was speaking too broadly, because this is a meeting of the bi-partisan and does include both parties in the House. However, this meeting was being lined up, and the rumor got out that it would be held Tuesday. The announcement was withheld because it has now developed that the Governor, who would like to sit in, would prefer to come on Wednesday, and I certainly wish to accommodate him, so I wish to announce now, that the joint meeting of the House and Senate, bi-partisan meeting for the purpose of discussing the Jacobs Report on education matters, will be on Wednesday night. It starts at 7:30.

In the meantime, it has been called to my attention that the Clerk of the House has very graciously offered, since this is a rather important stage in Legislature, to be available Tuesday night in his office for any members of the House who wish to drop by and consult with him on any matter that is bothering them regarding procedure or any of their own personal questions. Thank you.

The SPEAKER: The House is proceeding under Orders of the Day.

On motion of Mr. Couture of Lewiston,

Adjourned until Tuesday, March 5, at ten o'clock in the morning.
