“If said measure is not enacted by the legislature without change, the Governor is hereby requested to, by proclamation, order said measure to be referred to the people at a special election to be held not less than four nor more than six months after such proclamation, and the Governor is hereby requested to order such special election so that said measure, if approved by a majority of the votes given thereon, shall take effect and become a law in season for nominations thereunder for the official ballot to be used at the general election to be held in September, nineteen hundred and twelve.”

And whereas, the bill proposed in said petitions was not enacted without change by the legislature at the session at which it was presented;

Now, therefore, I, Frederick W. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have caused the seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, at Augusta, this eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-fifth.
