Volume I

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

December 3, 1980 to May 1, 1981

KJ PRINTING
AUGUSTA, MAINE

STATE OF MAINE
One Hundred and Tenth Legislature
First Regular Session
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE
January 20, 1981
Senate called to order by the Secretary.

The Secretary would ask the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort the Senator from Knox, Senator Collins, to the rostrum to assume to duties of President Pro-Tem.

Prayer by the Reverend Stephen D. Edington of the First Universalist Church of Rockland.

REVEREND EDINGTON: May we pray. In the name of the One who is the source of all life, we ask for guidance in the tasks that are before us. On this day when the hands of power in our nation's capitol are exchanged, may we here be prudent and deliberate in exercising the power and authority that is entrusted to us. May our diversity of opinions have the common goal of compassionate governance, and may the decisions made here be a reflection of the best that is within us and of our concern for the common good. May we be mindful both of our capacities and our limitations as we attend to the needs and concerns of those we represent.

We share on this day a special sense of hopeful thanksgiving, both for the impending release of the hostages and for the demonstration of human courage that has been shown by their families these many months past. In all of our dealings, then, grant us wisdom and grant us courage for the living of these days. Amen.

Reading of the Journal of yesterday.

Senator GILL: Mr. President, I would urge that the bill be referred to the Committee on Health and Institutional Services. The Committee on Health and Institutional Services in the past has heard the bills on no smoking. The statement of fact on this particular legislative document states: "the purpose of this bill is to protect the public health, comfort and environment by controlling or eliminating a health menace, and to provide reasonable safe access to the necessities of life and to provide access to noncontaminated foods and medicines." I think this bill really gets into the area of right of privacy, so I would urge the members to refer this bill to the Committee on Legal Affairs.

The PRESIDENT PRO-TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Gill.

Senator GILL: I might recall to the members of the Senate that the past immediate precedence is of the 108th and 109th Legislatures, and both of those Legislatures had the no smoking bills in the Health and Institutional Services Committee, so I would ask you to please send these bills back to Health and Institutional Services.
