

SAVE THE DATE!

Maine's Inaugural Child Protective Defense Conference

Presented by MCILS

When: April 1-3, 2024 from 8:00AM-4:30PM

Where: University of Southern Maine Lewiston-Auburn Campus at 51 Westminster Street, Lewiston. In-person only event.

Summary: MCILS is hosting a three-day conference on child protective defense. Attendees will hear from highly skilled parents' attorneys on topics relevant to child protective defense, both at the trial and appellate stages. Lunch will be provided.

Admission Restrictions: To attend this training, you must be eligible to accept MCILS case assignments.

Registration: Registration information will be sent out soon. Be on the lookout for more information but mark your calendars now because you won't want to miss this!

Cost: FREE! This training is eligible for payment in accordance with Chapter 301-A.