

USMLE Administration Contracts

POLICY: It is the policy of the Board of Licensure in Medicine to contract out administration of USMLE (United States Medical Licensing Exam) testing.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 15, 1993

REVISION DATE: December 1, 1999

HISTORY: The Board of Licensure in Medicine modified the policy to limit testing contractors to the originally intended contract agent - The Federation of State Medical Boards (FSMB) who gives this standardized exam in joint action with the National Board of Medical Examiners (NBME).
