

MGT 403: Underserved Populations Preparedness Planning for Rural Responders and Volunteers

MGT 403 is an 8-hour, DHS/FEMA-certified, tuition-free, management-level course. This course helps ensure the safety of underserved populations during a crisis event by increasing knowledge among community emergency planners in the area of preparedness. It encourages outreach to the whole community so that everyone considers what these individuals may require in terms of personalized care, transportation, shelter, and medical assistance before the crisis occurs. This course focuses on the preparedness phase of emergency management.

Topics include (but not limited to):

- Review of Common Programs and Continuity Resources
- Key Partnerships
- Individual Considerations
- Community Considerations
- Care Provider Considerations
- Preparedness and Response Tabletop Activity and Evaluation

Who Should Attend:
