Self-care and Staff Support Resources

- From the CDC- Things you can do to support yourself:
  - Take breaks from watching, reading, or listening to news stories and social media. Hearing about the pandemic repeatedly can be upsetting.
  - Take care of your body. Take deep breaths, stretch, or meditate. Try to eat healthy, well-balanced meals, exercise regularly, get plenty of sleep, and avoid alcohol and drugs.
  - Make time to unwind. Try to do some other activities you enjoy.
  - Connect with others. Talk with people you trust about your concerns and how you are feeling.
  - Call your healthcare provider if stress gets in the way of your daily activities for several days in a row.
  - If you, or someone you care about, are feeling overwhelmed with emotions like sadness, depression, or anxiety, or feel like you want to harm yourself or others call
    - 211Maine help line (or other recommendation)
    - Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration’s (SAMHSA’s) Disaster Distress Helpline: 1-800-985-5990 or text TalkWithUs to 66746. (TTY 1-800-846-8517)
