Minutes

Commissioners Present: Donald Alexander, Randall Bates, Meegan Burbank, Michael Cantara, Michael Carey, Roger Katz, Kimberly Monaghan, David Soucy, Joshua Tardy

MCILS Staff Present: Justin Andrus, Ellie Maciag

Agenda Item	Discussion/Outcome
Approval of the February 22, 2023 Commission Meeting Minutes	Commissioner Carey moved to approve the February 22, 2023 meeting minutes and to correct the spelling of Sarah Glynn's last name. Commissioner Cantara seconded. All voted in favor. Approved.
Report of the Executive Director	Operations report. Director Andrus pointed out that the current data shows a decrease in open cases compared to the same timeframe last year. Director Andrus indicated that at this time last year, MCILS requested that rostered attorneys enter all their open cases in defenderData, because many had not been entered, causing a sudden spike in the number of new cases for that period. There was a 6% increase in cases from fiscal year 2021 to fiscal year 2023. Director Andrus reported that MCILS did not receive any additional collections revenue from the Judicial Branch, which is a result of changes made last year. When asked about how that is reflected in the biennial budget, Director Andrus explained that the budget request includes what is needed, not what MCILS has currently. Commissioner Carey suggested that due to the nature of the change, the Appropriations Committee should have a discussion with the Judicial Branch and others that may be affected to discuss how the State should experience revenue going forward. Director Andrus replied that the projected expenses have been calculated without the expected revenue from the Judicial Branch but agreed that it should be part of the conversation. Director Andrus explained that while there has been outside talk of the backlog of cases coming under control, and that continuing to fund at the same rates will result in a surplus of funds very soon, the data suggests otherwise. He provided data comparisons for the percentage of backlog cases for the current fiscal year and fiscal year 2019. Looking at the pending Unified Criminal Docket (UCD) cases for March 2019 and March 2023, the felony difference is an 87.1% increase, and the misdemeanor difference is an 65.2% increase, on average across the state. When comparing FY22 to FY23, the felony backlog was 82.1% and is now 87.1%, and the misdemeanor backlog was at 63.4% and is now 65.2%. Director Andrus pointed out that the Judicial Branch numbers appear to be improving. Director Andrus was asked about hearing talk of the decrease in backlog. He responded that the main discussion point has not been that the backlog is no longer a problem, but that within the next two years the funding will not be needed because "everything is going to be okay." Director Andrus stated that the current and historical data demonstrate that there will continue to be a need for enhanced staffing.

	Case staffing status report. Director Andrus was happy to report that there has continued to be attorneys joining the roster, including some who had left in previous years and are interested in rejoining. Director Andrus reported that there were 97 attorneys accepting trial-level criminal cases, and 74 accepting trial-level child protective cases. Director Andrus explained that the number may not increase significantly in the short term as attorneys take on cases and max out their availability, but he pointed out that the number will comprise of a larger pool of people.
	Director Andrus explained that the Rural Defender Unit (RDU) is continuing to accumulate cases to offset the need in different areas of the state, including a sweep of new cases in Aroostook County. There have also been conversations with judges and clerks regarding specific cases that might be appropriate for the RDU to accept.
	Someone asked whether the newly rostered attorneys have caused an increase in availability in some of the more difficult to staff counties, to which Director Andrus responded that there has not been much of an increase in those areas.
	Draft Policy for reimbursement of certain legal fees. Director Andrus thanked Darcy Fisher for drafting the "Policy for Reimbursement of Certain Legal Fees Incurred by Counsel". In part, the policy authorizes the Executive Director—at their discretion—to authorize the reimbursement of certain legal fees to counsel if the total fees are less than $1,000.00. If the legal fees total $1,000.00 or more, the policy requires Commission approval for reimbursement. Commissioner Alexander moved to adopt the policy; Commissioner Carey seconded. All voted in favor. Approved.

Budget Update	Director Andrus was happy to report on a positive working session with the Judiciary Committee. The Judiciary Committee voted in support of the funding for the fee increase to $150 per hour. The Committee also voted in support of one of the two requested brick-and-mortar public defender offices. The focus will be on forming a solid public defender office that will be used as an example to support the request for a second office in the next biennium. The Judiciary Committee also voted to approve a second deputy executive director position. Director Andrus explained that the plan is to split the functions between the two positions into an operational role and a development role. The Judiciary Committee did not approve funding for any supervision and mentoring staff; MCILS will renew that request in the future.
Chapter 4 Caseload Standards Rulemaking Discussion	Director Andrus provided an update on the caseload rulemaking. Due to the nature of one of the revisions, the rule needed to come back to the Commission for review and a vote. Because of that, MCILS took the opportunity to revise the verbiage in the rule to reduce ambiguity. Discussion ensued regarding the process for approving the rule.
	Commissioner Cantara moved to approve the Commission response to the public comment as well as approving the detailed basis statement for Chapter 4; Commissioner Carey seconded. Discussion ensued regarding whether MCILS used the Delphi method when determining the numbers for the standards. Director Andrus explained that MCILS researched how the Delphi method works and used an approximation of the process to arrive at nearly empirically valid numbers. Director Andrus pointed out that the reason MCILS could not use the Delphi method was not because MCILS has assigned counsel, but because counsel have varying levels of support staff, which eliminates the scientific validity of doing a perfect analysis using the Delphi method. All voted in favor. Approved. Commissioner Soucy moved to approve the amended rule and put it out for public comment; Commissioner Katz seconded. Commissioner Alexander voted against. All others voted in favor. Approved.

Agenda Item	Discussion/Outcome
Public Comment	Robert Ruffner: Attorney Ruffner pointed out that any rostered attorneys who are working as Lawyer of the Day are usually unavailable to attend Commission meetings on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.
Adjournment of meeting	The next meeting will be held on April 24, 2023 at 1:00PM.

FROM: JUSTIN ANDRUS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: OPERATIONS REPORTS

DATE: April 20, 2023

Attached you will find the February 2022, Operations Reports for your review and our discussion at the Commission meeting on March 20, 2023. A summary of the operations reports follows:

- 2,842 new cases were opened in the DefenderData system in March. This was a 533 case increase from February. Year to date, new cases are down 6.2% from last year from 23,983 at this time last year to 22,480 this year. This apparent decrease in case load is the result of an apparent surge last year. That apparent surge was the result of the Staff instruction to assigned counsel to enter any cases that had not yet been entered.
- The number of vouchers submitted electronically in February was 3,256, an increase of 504 vouchers from February, totaling $2,259,878, an increase of $557,347 from February. Year to date, the number of submitted vouchers is up by approximately 3.6%, from 24,912 at this time last year to 25,816 this year, with the total amount for submitted vouchers up approximately 14.0%, from $13,829,846 at this time last year to $15,768,684 this year.
- In March, we paid 3,218 electronic vouchers totaling $2,136,668 representing an increase of 696 vouchers and an increase of $519,045 compared to February. Year to date, the number of paid vouchers is up approximately 7.2%, from 23,848 at this time last year to 25,579 this year, and the total amount paid is up approximately 17.5%, from $13,239,366 this time last year to $15,565,425 this year.
- The average price per voucher in March was $663.97 up $22.56 per voucher from February. Year to date, the average price per voucher is up approximately 8.2%, from $555.16 at this time last year to $608.52 this year.
- Resource Counsel, Protective Custody and Post-Conviction Review cases had the highest average voucher in March. There were 14 vouchers exceeding $5,000 paid in March. See attached addendum for details.
- In March, we issued 117 authorizations to expend funds: 60 for private investigators,43 for experts, and 14 for miscellaneous services such as interpreters and transcriptionists. In February, we paid $56,207 for experts and investigators, etc. No funds requests were denied.
- There was one attorney suspension in March.

- In our All Other Account, the total expenses for the month of March were $382,983. During March, approximately $45,598 was devoted to the Commission's operating expenses.
- In the Personal Services Accounts, we had $153,275 in expenses for the month of March.
- In the Revenue Account, we received no transfer of collected counsel fees from the Judicial Branch for February's collections. $2,135,118 was used for the payment of assigned counsel vouchers.
- Exceptional results see attached addendum.
- As of April 20, 2023, there are 216 rostered attorneys of which 174 are available for trial court level work.

Indigent Legal Services for Criminal Defendants in Maine

March 2023

Maine Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

The Maine Advisory Committee (Committee) to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights (Commission) is examining whether Maine's lack of a robust public criminal defender system impacts the civil rights of indigent criminal defendants. The Committee received testimony¹ on three occasions in 2022, from impacted individuals, advocates, academics, and government officials familiar with Maine's system for providing public defense. The Committee is drafting its findings and recommendations based on these testimonies for the Commission's attention.

The state cannot incarcerate a defendant for any period of time, without providing counsel: a defendant's right to an attorney is found in the Sixth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution,² which guarantees the assistance of counsel for the accused facing actual incarceration. This means that a defendant facing incarceration has a constitutional right to be represented by an attorney, and if they cannot afford one, the state government must appoint legal counsel, at no cost to the defendant. The Supreme Court has held that the right to legal counsel guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment requires that the legal counsel is "effective" and must include "meaningful adversarial testing" of the prosecutor's case.³ Maine's own Constitution guarantees indigent persons the right to counsel when imprisonment will actually be imposed under State v. Cook.⁴

Recent articles⁵ highlight that the Maine Legislature is currently receiving proposals to fund Maine's system of indigent legal service provision at levels far below what the Committee heard⁶ would be necessary for Maine to provide effective legal counsel and meaningful defense against prosecution. Based on the evidence we received,⁷ we initially conclude that Governor Mills' 2023 budget proposal is far below the funding levels necessary for effective legal counsel and meaningful defense.⁸

Due to the time sensitive nature of addressing this concern while the Maine Legislature is considering funding proposals, the Committee wishes to issue a preliminary recommendation to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights to forward this memo to the Maine Legislature's leadership, the Committee on Judiciary, the Committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs, and the Legislative Budget Subcommittee; to Governor Mills; to the Chief Justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court; and to the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services. Our preliminary recommendation is as follows:

Provide funding at the minimum level recommended by the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services to ensure enough provision for effective legal services.

Response to Public Comments

Proposed Rule: Chapter 301- Fee Schedule and Administrative Procedures for Payment of Court or Commission Assigned Counsel

Comment #1:

MACDL supports the increase in the hourly rate paid to assigned counsel as it will allow attorneys to be able to spend more in-depth time on their cases and will also allow attorneys to hire support staff.

Tina Nadeau, Esq., Executive Director, Maine Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

MCILS Response:

Two primary objectives in raising the hourly rate were to ensure that assigned counsel are adequately compensated for their work and to allow them the ability to afford hiring staff to support their practice. The Commission expects this rate increase to allow counsel to dedicate the appropriate time to all their cases so clients can receive the highest quality representation.

Detailed Basis Statement for Chapter 301

Since July 1, 2021, MCILS Rules Chapter 301, Section 2, has authorized a rate of Eighty Dollars ($80.00) per hour for time spent on an assigned case. Court appointed counsel operating under the MCILS system have been withdrawing from that system in part because the rate of payment for work on assigned cases did not permit counsel to operate cost efficiently. MCILS relies on appointed counsel to discharge its constitutional and statutory obligations. In Sec. Q-1 of the supplemental appropriations bill passed by the Legislature for fiscal year 2023, the Legislature authorized MCILS to engage in rulemaking to raise the rate up to $150.00 per hour. Section 2 must be amended to permit MCILS to pay appointed counsel the $150.00 per hour authorized by the Legislature. Without immediate action to implement the legislatively authorized rate increase, the Commission is in jeopardy of losing additional lawyers off the roster and imperiling the continued operation of the assigned counsel system.
