INTRODUCTION

The statutory mission of the Maine Bureau of Financial Institutions (Bureau), as set forth in Title 9-B of the Maine Revised Statutes, the Maine Banking Code, is to ensure the strength, stability and efficiency of the financial institutions it regulates, encourage the development and expansion of financial services, ensure reasonable and orderly competition, protect consumers against unfair practices by institutions that offer consumer credit, provide consumer education, and encourage the development of economically sound credit practices.

As of June 30, 2016, the amount of assets held by Maine state-chartered institutions supervised by the Bureau was approximately $19.2 billion. Total assets for Maine state-chartered banks, (including limited purpose banks) increased from $16.3 billion on June 30, 2015 to $17.3 billion on June 30, 2016 and total assets for Maine state-chartered credit unions increased from $1.8 billion to $1.9 billion over the same time period. To ensure the safe and sound operation of Maine state-chartered financial institutions, the Bureau is charged with enforcing the Maine Banking Code (Title 9-B) and sections of the Maine Consumer Credit Code (Title 9-A). This action is carried out by the Bureau's two divisions, each with its own distinct role. The Research, Administration, and Legal Affairs Division issues regulatory guidance, promulgates rules, responds to consumer complaints, and reviews and processes applications to charter new financial institutions or merge existing institutions. The Supervision and Examination Division conducts periodic on-site examinations of each state-chartered financial institution to assess its risk management processes, financial condition, and compliance with applicable Maine and federal banking laws and regulations. Bureau examiners conduct on-site safety and soundness examinations, which include trust department, information technology, and holding company reviews, and consumer compliance examinations.

In 2016, there were 43 Maine state-chartered financial institutions subject to the primary supervision of the Bureau. These Maine state-chartered financial institutions included 19 banks, 12 credit unions, and 12 limited-purpose financial institutions consisting primarily of nondepository trust companies. During the twelve month period from November 1, 2015 to October 31, 2016, the Bureau received and processed 13 applications. One was to establish a new nondepository trust company in Portland to be known as Atlantic Trust. Another application processed and approved was for Bar Harbor

Bank & Trust to acquire through merger Lake Sunapee Bank, fsb, Newport, New Hampshire, and for Bar Harbor Bankshares to acquire through merger Lake Sunapee Bank Group, Newport, New Hampshire. Maine state-chartered financial institutions closed a total of six branches, of which four were in the rural communities of Penobscot, Franklin, and Somerset counties, while other closures were located in Augusta and Portland. Maine state-chartered financial institutions opened two new branches, one each in Portland and Brunswick, and relocated a branch in Augusta. Most branches closed were in close proximity to existing financial institutions.

In addition to examining state-chartered financial institutions, the Bureau performs consumer outreach functions. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016, the Bureau's Consumer Outreach Specialist responded to 423 consumer complaints and inquiries, of which 58 required Bureau intervention. Complaints received pertained to fees for financial services and products, requests for loan modification assistance, credit reporting errors, and questions about collection activity. The Bureau monitors complaint activity as part of its effort to stay informed of financial issues affecting Maine consumers.

The Bureau also participates in Maine's SeniorSafe outreach program, a collaborative effort with Maine state government agencies, members of the Maine Council for Elder Abuse Prevention, Legal Services for the Elderly, Department of Health and Human Services, Maine Bankers Association, and the Maine Credit Union League to educate financial institution employees about the warning signs of senior financial exploitation and necessary intervention techniques. The Bureau and its partners delivered three SeniorSafe presentations in 2016, held in Auburn, Lewiston, and Presque Isle. Previously, events were held in Augusta, Portland, and Bangor

This report contains summary financial data for financial institutions doing business in Maine. It includes information on assets, deposits and loans, as well as office and branch location information. While this Annual Report should be helpful as a point-in-time resource, the Bureau's website (www.maine.gov/pfr/financialinstitutions) continues to provide access to both current and archived information.

SECTION I
APPLICATIONS

Application Activity

The Maine Banking Code requires that an application or notice be submitted to the Bureau prior to chartering new institutions and before existing institutions may branch, merge, acquire other organizations, or engage in certain activities. During the twelve-month period from November 1, 2015 to October 31, 2016, application activity for Maine’s state-chartered financial institutions remained primarily focused on branching activity, accounting for nine of the 13 applications processed. Maine state-chartered financial institutions closed a total of six branches. Maine’s state-charted financial institutions established two new branches, one in Brunswick and one in Portland, and relocated a branch in Augusta.

One of the 13 applications processed was to establish a new nondepository trust company in Portland, known as Atlantic Trust, which was approved on May 10, 2016. The Bureau also received two applications for state-chartered financial institutions to engage in closely related banking activities.

Additionally, the Bureau also processed an application for Bar Harbor Bank & Trust to acquire through merger Lake Sunapee Bank, fsb, Newport, New Hampshire, and for Bar Harbor Bankshares to acquire through merger Lake Sunapee Bank Group, Newport, New Hampshire. The application to merge was approved by Order of the Superintendent on October 14, 2016, subject to both regulatory and shareholder approvals, and is anticipated to consummate in early 2017.

SECTION II CONSUMER OUTREACH

Consumer Outreach Program

The Bureau has a Consumer Outreach Specialist on staff who is available to answer questions related to financial institutions, mediate complaints against state-chartered banks and credit unions, participate in training programs, and make referrals to other regulatory agencies when necessary. Consumers may file complaints by phone or through the Bureau's secure website.

The Bureau handles all inquiries and complaints related to state-chartered financial institutions. If a consumer's issue pertains to a nationally-chartered bank or federal credit union, a referral is made to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). The Bureau has a memorandum of understanding with the CFPB to share complaint information related to Maine residents through a regulator portal. This portal enables the Bureau to track complaints and further assist consumers during the complaint process.

In the past year, the Consumer Outreach Specialist also conducted presentations at high schools and civic organizations on topics ranging from personal finances to identity theft. Additionally, the Consumer Outreach Specialist maintains the Bureau's consumer resources found on the Bureau's website, where consumers will find links to a variety of financial topics, answers to frequently asked questions, and lists of the financial institutions doing business in the State.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016, the Bureau responded to 423 consumer complaints and inquiries. Of those, 58 required Bureau intervention. The Bureau is most successful when intervening in disputes involving its state-chartered financial institutions, though consumers of nationally-chartered financial institutions are nonetheless encouraged to contact the Outreach Specialist who can provide valuable information and discuss possible outcomes. Many of the calls received pertained to fees for financial services and products, requests for loan modification assistance, credit reporting errors, and questions about collection activity.

Financial Exploitation of the Elderly – Outreach Assistance

In 2016, the Bureau continued its participation in Maine’s Senior$afe outreach program, designed to educate financial institution employees about the warning signs of potential senior financial exploitation and the steps financial institutions can take to protect Maine’s elderly. Partnering with the Office of Securities, members of the Maine Council for Elder Abuse Prevention, Legal Services for the Elderly, Department of Health and Human Services, Maine Bankers Association, and the Maine Credit Union League, the Bureau participated in Senior$afe educational events in Auburn, Lewiston and Presque Isle. Previously, events have been held in Portland, Augusta and Bangor. At this year’s Presque Isle event, a representative from Senator Susan Collins’ office addressed the group and provided additional insight on the work the Senator has done to address the problem in Congress. As chair of the Senate Committee on Aging, she recently introduced federal legislation to provide financial institutions with civil and criminal immunity against charges of improper disclosure of personal financial information provided the institutions demonstrate they have trained their employees to identify, mitigate, and prevent senior financial exploitation. As of January 1, 2017, the bill was pending in the Senate.

Financial Scams

Another function of the Consumer Outreach Specialist is to educate consumers on the latest financial scams. In 2016, various types of scams were directed at consumers in an effort to gain unlawful access to their funds and bank accounts, including: the IRS scam, the Nigerian prince scam, the debt collector scam, and phishing attacks, among others. The Bureau aims to educate consumers about the warning signs and dangers of these scams. It can be very difficult to recover funds lost to online scammers who cannot be located or are based overseas. The Bureau also offers resources in its online resource library to help educate consumers and prevent losses.

This past summer, the Bureau was made aware of a new type of texting scam. The Bureau learned that Maine consumers were receiving a fraudulent text message that appeared to be from consumers' financial institutions. The texts stated there was a problem with the consumer's account, and that the consumer needed to disclose personal information via text in order to fix the non-existent problem. Upon learning of the scams' breadth, the Bureau issued a press release warning consumers about the phony text messages. In the release, consumers were informed that their financial institutions would never call or text them asking for personal information, and further instructed consumers not to return the text or call the number provided in the text, and never provide personal account information or other personal information in response to a text, call, or e-mail. The press release reminded consumers that a bank or credit union would never request personal account information in such a manner.

SECTION III
DATA

Summary of Financial Institutions Authorized To Do Business in Maine

There were 105 financial institutions authorized to do business in Maine as of June 30, 2016. Included among them were 19 state-chartered banks, 12 state-chartered credit unions, 11 state-chartered nondepository trust companies and 1 state-chartered merchant bank. Total assets of state-chartered banks increased from $16.3 billion on June 30, 2015 to $17.3 billion on June 30, 2016. Total assets for state-chartered credit unions increased from $1.8 billion to $1.9 billion during the same period. The following tables show assets, deposits and loans by institution type over the reporting period, including the number and location of branches held by each institution.
