NOTICE TO BRADY DIAZ

Effective as of January 12, 2026, your Maine resident insurance producer license will be REVOKED without further formal proceedings unless you request a hearing as specified below.

The reasons for your license revocation are as follows:

1. On or around August 16, 2024, you applied for a Maine resident insurance producer license.
2. In that application, you indicated that you resided at 40 Cushman Rd, Winslow, ME 04901 and had a mailing address of 8796 Briarwood Meadow Ln, Boynton Beach, FL 33473.
3. In that application, you also confirmed that you had taken Maine's producer licensing examination remotely on August 14, 2024.
4. The examination is a pre-licensing requirement under 24-A M.R.S. § 1410.
5. To be licensed in Maine as a resident producer, your principal place of residence or principal place of business at the time of the license application must be in the State of Maine. 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-A(2).
6. In your application, you certified that the information in the application was true and correct under penalty of perjury and that "submitting false information or omitting pertinent or material information...is grounds for license revocation or denial."
7. On November 19, 2025, you sent an email to Bureau staff writing in part:

"I am requesting to voluntarily give up my Maine resident insurance producer license in place of revocation actions. I acknowledge that I did not satisfy the residency requirement outlined in 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-A(2) when I applied, and I do not plan to dispute the Bureau's decision. . . ."
8. On November 19, 2025, Bureau staff sent an inquiry to you at your mailing and email addresses on file with the Bureau. As part of these communications, the Bureau requested that you provide certain information, including information concerning the issuance of your Maine resident insurance producer license.

9. The Bureau was seeking this information pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. § 220(1). Your response was required within 10 business days pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. § 220(2).
10. You have failed to respond to this inquiry.
11. On November 27, 2025, you again emailed Bureau staff to request that your Maine resident insurance producer license be voluntarily terminated.
12. On December 1, 2025, Bureau staff emailed you to confirm that your Maine resident insurance producer license had been voluntarily terminated effective November 27, 2025. In this email, Bureau staff also advised you that pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. §1417(3), "The superintendent may, after notice and opportunity for a hearing under this section, deem the license suspended or revoked of a previously licensed person who voluntarily surrendered an insurance license."
13. Your provision of untrue information in your application for a Maine resident insurance producer license and your failure to respond to the Bureau's November 19, 2025, inquiry constitute grounds for the revocation of your Maine resident insurance producer license pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. §§ 1420-K(1)(A)(B)(C) and 220(2).

Therefore, based upon the above grounds, your Maine resident insurance producer license is revoked as of January 12, 2026, pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. §§ 1417 and 1420-K, subject to your right to request a hearing.

Under the Maine Insurance Code, specifically 24-A M.R.S. §§ 1417 and 1420-K, you have the right to a hearing before the Superintendent or his designee. If you request a hearing, you will have the right to present evidence and arguments in your defense, and the staff of the Bureau of Insurance will bear the burden of proving each violation by a preponderance of the evidence.

If you request a hearing, you will receive further communication regarding scheduling. The matters to be determined through the hearing process are whether you committed one or more of the violations listed above, and if so, the appropriate sanctions for those violations. The sanctions imposed after a hearing can include any available remedy under applicable laws, including the payment of civil penalties.

To request a hearing, you must notify the Bureau of Insurance in writing no later than January 12, 2026. If you do not file a written request for a hearing within 30 days from the time you knew or reasonably should have known of this act through this Notice and Order, you will lose your right to request a hearing on this license revocation Notice and Order.

Any request for a hearing, as well as all other communications regarding this Notice, Order, and Opportunity for Hearing must be addressed to Licensing Attorney Courtney Burne, Bureau of Insurance, #34 State House Station, Augusta, Maine 04333-0034 (for US Postal Service deliveries) or 76 Northern Avenue, Gardiner, Maine 04345 (for private carrier deliveries, such as FedEx or UPS). You may also reach Courtney Burne by email at courtney.burne@maine.gov or by telephone at (207) 624-8451.
