BOARD RECENTLY AMENDED RULES
CHAPTER 9: SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY ASSISTANTS

Dear Licensee:

Effective November 8, 2020, the Board of Speech, Audiology and Hearing amended Chapter 9 of its rules regarding Speech-Language Pathology Assistants.

The following is a brief summary of the changes:

- Effective November 8, 2020, a $50 license fee will be required for initial issuance and renewal of Speech-Language Pathology Assistant (SLP-A) licenses;
- Licenses will be issued at no cost to SLP-A’s currently holding an active status with the Board;
- SLP-A licenses will expire annually on February 28 of each year that is not a leap year and on February 29 of each year that is a leap year;
- SLP-A’s may have more than one (1) supervising Speech-Language Pathologist; and
- A Speech-Language Pathologist may supervise up to 2 full-time/40 hours per week SLP-As, or 4 part-time/20 hours per week SLP-As.
