Vote: 8 in favor, 0 opposed.

VII. DISCUSSIONS

Discussion on getting more builders licensed as Dealers. Modular training to qualify for equivalent experience in order to get a license.

VIII. SENIOR INSPECTOR'S REPORT

Question was answered as to who is responsible to install seal. Code enforcers call with questions and ask for training dates. Tie downs new regulation Nov 3rd. Busy with pre-occ inspections. 800 Hud homes so far installed in Maine.

IX. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

2 day HUD National & 3rd party meeting virtually. New regulations went into effect mid summer. Lack of cooperation with HUD came up as a discussion regarding Maine. New HUD administration seems to be well organized. IBTS meeting to go over Maine's yearly HUD plan. Hud liaison not in attendance due to government shutdown. Northeast has good SAA network. Attending several ongoing legislative committees.

X. PUBLIC OPPORTUNITY TO COMMENT

Public comment from a tenant in community park regarding trees. As of Nov 1st tenant will be responsible for any hazardous trees. Many questions for the board. Who is responsible for other dangerous issues. Wants board to review #5 of the regulations.

XI. ADJOURNMENT

A motion was made at 10:24am by Geoffrey Smith and seconded by Thatcher Butcher to adjourn.

Vote: 8 in favor, 0 opposed.
