License Examination

Please review Chapter 4 of the Board's Rules carefully. Chapter 4 outlines the requirements for licensure as a clinical professional counselor. An application will not be approved unless the applicant meets all qualifications as outlined in the Board's Rules. A complete application shall include the following:

- ❑ A completed and signed Application;
- ❑ Payment of an Application fee of $25.00;
- ❑ A copy of your Official Transcript indicating earned/conferred degree;
- ❑ A completed Educational Requirements Worksheet accompanied by course descriptions, syllabi and/or catalogs; (Submit only if your mental health counseling program was not CACREP accredited at the time the degree was awarded) or COAMFTE accredited with a doctoral degree. (Educational Worksheets can be found under "Applications and Forms" on our website)

Note: Course descriptions should be taken directly from course catalogues current at the time the courses were completed.

- ❑ A completed Verification of Internship Form by the university that attests to the number of internship hours, and also describes the counseling activities, setting, and supervisor credentials of the internship experience, and whether or not the internship was clinical.

Please note:

There is a separate application for licensure if you wish to obtain the temporary conditional marriage and family therapist license.

8. Practicum
9. Internship

Educational Requirements for Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

Chapter 4, Section 2

Marital and Family Studies: Nine (9) semester hours or quarter-hour equivalent in theories of family development, general systems theory, theories of family functioning, the family life cycle, sociology of the family, families under stress, contemporary family forms, family sub-systems, family of origin and external societal influences, family pathology such as addiction, child abuse and sexual abuse, and other related topics. Three (3) of the nine (9) semester hours must be in general systems theory.

Marital and Family Therapy: Nine (9) semester hours or quarter-hour equivalent in the study of major marital and family therapy treatment approaches and techniques to provide a substantive understanding of systems change. The coursework may include strategic, structural, integrative experiential, systems, neo-analytic, communications and behavioral treatment modalities.

Human Development: Six (6) semester hours or quarter-hour equivalent in the study of human development across the life cycle, personality theory and cognitive development.

Human Sexuality: Studies that provide an understanding of human sexuality over the life cycle, sex roles, sexual function and dysfunction.

Diagnosis and Treatment: Students that provide an understanding of psychopathology, the diagnosis and statistical manual and its use in counseling, psychopathology, the development of treatment plans and the use of related services, and the role of assessment, intake interviews, and reports.

Professional Orientation: Studies that provide an understanding of professional roles and functions, professional organizations and associations, history and trends within the profession, ethical and legal standards, and professional preparation standards and professional credentialing.

Research and Evaluation: Studies that provide an understanding of the types of research, basic statistics, research report development, research implementation, program evaluation, needs assessment, and ethical and legal considerations associated with research and evaluation.

Practicum: A course of clinical instruction that provides practical experience in counseling for the purpose of developing marriage and family counseling skills. These experiences allow students to perform, on a limited basis, some counseling activities that a regularly employed licensed marriage and family therapist would be expected to perform.

Internship: A full academic year of supervised marriage and family counseling experience consisting of at least 900 clock hours, including a minimum of 360 clock hours of direct client contact. The internship provides an opportunity for the student to perform all the activities that a regularly employed marriage and family therapist would be expected to perform.
