INTRODUCTION

The statutory mission of Maine Bureau of Financial Institutions (Bureau), as set forth in Title 9-B of the Maine Revised Statutes, the Maine Banking Code, is to ensure the strength, stability and efficiency of the financial institutions it regulates, encourage the development and expansion of financial services, ensure reasonable and orderly competition, protect consumers against unfair practices, provide consumer education, and encourage the development of economically sound credit practices. In 2017, the Bureau provided regulatory supervision to 43 state-chartered financial institutions, including 19 banks, 12 credit unions, and 12 limited purpose financial institutions. As of June 30, 2017, assets held by Maine state-chartered institutions supervised by the Bureau totaled approximately $22.49 billion. Maine state-chartered banks, (including limited purpose banks) recorded $20.43 billion in assets, representing a year-over-year increase of $3.08 billion, or 17.8%. Assets held by Maine state-chartered credit unions increased from $1.92 to $2.06 billion during the same time period, representing an increase of 7.2%.

The Bureau's two distinct divisions are responsible for the administration of the Maine Banking Code and the Maine Consumer Credit Code (Title 9-A). The Research, Administration, and Legal Affairs Division issues regulatory guidance, promulgates rules, responds to consumer complaints, reviews and processes applications to charter new financial institutions or merge existing institutions, and interacts with the Maine Legislature during legislative sessions. The Supervision and Examination Division conducts periodic on-site examinations of each state-chartered financial institution to evaluate their financial strength, risk management processes, and compliance with state and federal laws and regulations. Bureau examiners conduct on-site safety and soundness, compliance, trust, information technology, and holding company examinations.

During the twelve-month period from November 1, 2016 to October 31, 2017, the Bureau received and processed 20 applications and notifications. This activity included the reorganization of a mutual bank into a mutual holding company structure, mergers and acquisitions, the establishment of six new branches, closure of seven branches, and four branch relocations.

The Bureau also dedicates resources to consumer outreach and complaint mediation. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017, the Bureau's Consumer Outreach Specialist responded to 430 consumer complaints and inquiries, of which 224 required Bureau intervention. Complaints involved deposit account activities, fee disputes, consumer loans and credit cards. In addition to responding to consumer complaints, the Bureau actively monitors the latest scam and data breach activity, informing consumers and financial institutions of the illicit activity when appropriate through targeted email distribution lists and press releases.

The Bureau continues to keep informed of issues affecting the banking and financial services industry, and reminds financial institutions to remain vigilant regarding cybersecurity breaches, such as the one reported by Equifax in 2017. In addition, the Bureau remains a partner in the SeniorSafe initiative, a collaborative effort between multiple state agencies and advocates for the elderly designed to teach financial institutions' managers and frontline employees to spot and report suspected cases of senior financial exploitation. Representatives from the Bureau attended SeniorSafe trainings held in Westbrook and Bangor in 2017.

The following report contains summary financial data for financial institutions doing business in Maine. It includes information on assets, deposits/shares, and loans as well as office and branch location information. While this Annual Report should be helpful as a point-in-time resource for data on financial institutions, the Bureau's website (<http://www.maine.gov/pfr/financialinstitutions/>) continues to provide access to both current and archived information.

SECTION I
APPLICATIONS

Application Activity

Financial institutions are required to submit an application or provide notice to the Bureau prior to chartering new institutions and before existing institutions may branch, merge, acquire other organizations, or engage in certain business activities. Over the twelve-month period from November 1, 2016 to October 31, 2017, application activity for Maine’s state-chartered financial institutions focused primarily on branching activity, accounting for 17 of the 20 applications and notifications processed. Maine’s state-chartered financial institutions established six new branches: three in the greater Portland market, one in Augusta, one in Ellsworth, and one in Stratham, New Hampshire. Maine’s state-chartered financial institutions closed seven branches, of which six were located in rural communities in Aroostook, Franklin, and Somerset counties. The seventh closed branch was in Augusta. There were four notifications of branch relocations, which occurred in the towns of Millinocket, Yarmouth, and Skowhegan.

Other application and notice activity included the reorganization of a Maine state-chartered mutual bank, Kennebunk Savings Bank, into a mutual holding company structure; the acquisition of the parent company of Maine-chartered Global Trust Company by Community Bank Systems Inc., a bank holding company, and the merger of southern Maine-based Ocean Communities Federal Credit Union into New Hampshire-chartered Northeast Credit Union.

SECTION II CONSUMER OUTREACH

Consumer Outreach Program

Since 1987, the Bureau has had a Consumer Outreach Program with a designated Outreach Specialist on staff. The Outreach Specialist is available to answer questions related to the business of financial institutions, mediate complaints against financial institutions, participate in training programs, and make referrals to other regulatory agencies when necessary. In the past year, the Consumer Outreach Specialist conducted presentations at high schools, civic organizations, and residential facilities on topics ranging from personal finances to identity theft.

The Consumer Outreach Specialist maintains the Bureau's online consumer resources hosted on the Bureau's website. There, consumers find links to a variety of financial topics, answers to frequently asked questions, and lists of the financial institutions doing business in the State. Consumers may also file complaints through the website, which are either handled by the Consumer Outreach Specialist or referred to the appropriate federal supervisory authority. If a consumer issue pertains to a federally-chartered bank or credit union, a referral is made to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) or the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). The Bureau maintains a working relationship with these federal authorities so it may continue to monitor consumer complaints after a referral has been made.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017, the Bureau responded to 430 consumer complaints and inquiries. Of these, 224 required Bureau intervention. The Bureau is most successful when intervening in disputes involving its state-chartered financial institutions, though consumers of nationally-chartered financial institutions are nonetheless encouraged to contact the Outreach Specialist who can provide valuable information and discuss possible outcomes. Many of the calls received pertained to fees for financial services and products, requests for loan modification assistance, and questions about collection activity.

*Included in "Other" are the following: credit report problems, fees associated with deposit account, forgery, funds availability, prepaid debit cards, identity theft and telemarketing.

Data Breach – Protective Measures for Consumers

Data breaches containing nonpublic personal information are a continuing concern for consumers and regulators. A significant breach of personal information reported by Equifax in 2017 served as a pointed reminder that consumers need to be vigilant in protecting themselves from identity theft. While the full extent of the breach remains unknown, regulatory agencies are encouraging consumers to take proactive steps to protect their credit files and personal financial information.

In addition to closely monitoring financial statements and personal credit reports, the Bureau reminds consumers that one of the most important steps they can take to protect themselves from fraud is to place a “freeze” on their credit report. Maine law requires that all credit reporting agencies, when requested by a consumer, freeze the consumer’s report for free. A parent or guardian can do this for children, but for a fee of $10. A freeze helps prevent a thief from obtaining credit in a consumer’s name because the consumer’s credit report will not be provided to a lender without the consumer’s permission to “unfreeze” the report.

In addition to assisting consumers, the Bureau also reminds financial institutions to take certain steps to mitigate the effects of data breaches. Financial institutions are encouraged to maintain adequate software patch management, confirm financial information with consumers, and code customer accounts with “red flags” when consumers report that their personal data may have been compromised.

SeniorSafe Outreach Program – 2017 Update

In 2017, the Bureau continued its participation in the SeniorSafe outreach program, a collaborative effort among state agencies and advocates for the elderly to protect Maine seniors from financial exploitation. The initiative is designed to train frontline financial institution customer representatives to spot signs of potential elder financial abuse, as well as provide bank and credit union managers with resources on how to report suspicious activity to the proper authorities. During the trainings, attendees are given examples of potential activities that could indicate an elderly customer is being abused, provided with an explanation of the laws under which they are authorized to report these incidents to law enforcement or regulators, and introduced to community resources outside the financial services sphere designed to help elderly customers address current abuse and prevent future exploitation. Trainings for the 2017 calendar year were held in Westbrook and Bangor.

Preventing senior financial exploitation is also a priority of federal regulatory agencies. In August of 2017, the CFPB and the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FINCEN) published a memo on law enforcement efforts to combat elder financial exploitation. Included in this memo are best practices financial institutions should follow to combat elder abuse, one specific example being to fill out Suspicious Activity Reports (SARS) when they suspect an elderly customer is the victim of abuse or exploitation. Further, the federal Elder Abuse Prevention and Prosecution Act became law on October 18, 2017. The law designates new roles for the Department of Justice (DOJ) to combat elder abuse. This includes requirements that the DOJ annually report to Congress about the incidence of elder abuse; collaborate with state and local governments to train local authorities to investigate, prosecute, prevent, and mitigate the impacts of elder abuse; and publish model power of attorney legislation and best practices for improving guardianship proceedings. Furthermore, the legislation creates the new roles of Elder Justice Coordinators in the federal judicial districts and also establishes a working group of elder abuse experts to provide policy advice.

SECTION III
FINANCIAL INSTITUTION DATA

Summary of Financial Institutions Authorized to Do Business in Maine

There were 105 financial institutions authorized to do business in Maine as of June 30, 2017. Included among them were 19 state-chartered banks, 12 state-chartered credit unions, 11 state-chartered nondepository trust companies, and one state-chartered merchant bank. Total assets of state-chartered banks increased from $17.35 billion on June 30, 2016 to $20.43 billion on June 30, 2017. Total assets for state-chartered credit unions increased from $1.92 to $2.06 billion during the same period. The following tables show assets, deposits, and loans by institution type over the reporting period, including the number and location of branches held by each institution.
