* Generally, a Maine resident is an individual (1) who was domiciled in Maine for the entire tax year; or (2) who maintained a permanent place of abode in Maine for the entire tax year and spent a total of more than 183 days in Maine. For a more comprehensive description of Maine residency, see the Guidance to Residency Status document at www.maine.gov/revenue (select Forms, Publications and Applications, then select Income Tax Guidance Documents).

 Maine relies on federal rules for determining dependency. Generally, an individual must pay more than 50% of your support to claim you as a dependent for individual income tax purposes. Other rules apply. For more information, see federal Form 1040 instructions available at www.irs.gov/formspubs (select Form and Instruction Number, then from the list of files select the Instructions for Form 1040).
