INSTRUCTIONS

If a Maine estate tax return (Form 706ME) has not yet been filed, the return must be filed with the Application of Discharge of Personal Liability for Personal Representative of a Maine Estate (the "Application") or filed with Maine Revenue Services on the date due. 700-SOV Estate Tax Statement of Value for Lien Discharge For Certain Nontaxable Estates is not considered a return.

Attach a copy of the final federal determination of federal estate tax liability. For Maine estate tax purposes, final federal determination generally means that a federal estate closing letter has been received. See 36 M.R.S. §§ 4071 & 4111 for additional information on final federal determination. If the estate is not taxable for federal purposes and no federal return is filed, please explain and state that no final federal determination was issued. Form 706ME is still required for the Application to be signed by the State Tax Assessor. If the final federal determination is received after the original Maine return is filed and changes of any item result in additional estate tax liability, an amended Maine return is required showing all changes made by the IRS.

Maine Revenue Services ("MRS") will notify the personal representative of any estate tax liability and the interest on that amount within one year of the date the application is filed, or, if the application is made before the return is filed, within one year of the date the Maine estate tax return is filed. Once the personal representative pays that liability, MRS will issue the completed application.

The discharge of personal liability only applies to the personal representative listed on this application in his or her capacity as personal representative for the estate of the decedent. Issuing the completed application does not release the personal representative from any other tax liability or responsibility to the State of Maine. No person other than the personal representative in his or her capacity as personal representative is released from personal liability. The estate of the decedent, any other fiduciary and those in possession of estate assets, remain liable for any estate tax later determined to be due.

If not previously notified by MRS, the personal representative's personal liability will be discharged one year after the return is filed or this application is received, whichever is later. This discharge relates to the liability as a personal representative and does not cover a liability as beneficiary.

If you would like this discharge mailed to someone other than the personal representative listed on page 1, complete the "Return to:" area at the bottom left corner of the form.

For more information, see 36 M.R.S. §§ 4066 & 4106, MRS Rules 601 & 603.
