

RESOURCES for SCHOOL PERSONNEL

Articles - The following articles address topics of concern and may be of help to you.

School memorials –Should We? How Should We?

www.tlcinstitute.org/Memorials.html

“School Response to Youth Suicide Attempts: What Works”

www.safer-schools.com/attempt1.htm

“When a parent dies by suicide...what kids want to know”

http://www.camh.net/About_Addiction_Mental_Health/Mental_Health_Information/when_parent_suicide.html

“How to Answer Questions Teens Ask About Suicide”

www.tlcinstitute.org/PTRCteenquestions.html

Websites - Other sites of interest

<http://www.suicideinfo.ca/youthatrisk> is a Canadian site that has information for professionals, parents and youth.

Books - The following books and pamphlets are available from The Dougy Center—The National Center for Grieving Children and Families www.dougy.org

After a Suicide Death—An Activity Book for Grieving Kids

Helping the Grieving Student: A Guide for Teachers

Helping Teens Cope with Death

Here’s an idea worth considering—Contact Linda Williams (622-7566 ext. 243 or lwilliams@mcd.org) for a lesson plan that requires students to use the Maine Youth Suicide Prevention Program’s youth web site. www.mainesuicideprevention.org/youth

Compiled by the Maine Youth Suicide Prevention Program

