POLICY STATEMENT #16

Subject:     Procurement of Regional Council Services

Revised:    02/14

Regional Councils were established by the Legislature to provide technical assistance in the areas of community development and comprehensive planning. Program grantees may be exempted from the Community Development Block Grant Procurement Procedures for securing services from regional councils during the Project Development Phase (Phase II).

Contracts for other activities, such as grant administration, must be awarded using normal procurement procedures as outlined in Part 85 and the CDBG Financial Handbook.
