

STATE OF MAINE

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

DOCKET NO. BAR-99-1

BOARD OF OVERSEERS
OF THE BAR,

Plaintiff

v.

ORDER FOR REINSTATEMENT

RICHARD B. SLOSBERG,

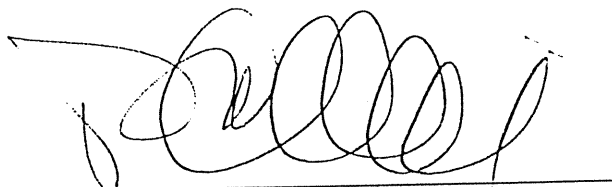

Respondent

Upon motion of the defendant, Richard B. Slosberg, for the Court to vacate its temporary suspension order of April 12, 1999, and to reinstate Slosberg to the practice of law, and after hearing, during which the court received testimony and documentary evidence concerning the defendant's current medical condition and its effect on his ability to practice law, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. That the Respondent's motion to vacate the temporary suspension is hereby granted.
2. Pursuant to the provisions of M. Bar R. 7.3(e)(3), the Respondent is hereby reinstated to the practice of law in Maine effective the date of this order, subject to the following conditions.
  - a) Upon receipt from the Board of the FY 2001 registration statement, the Respondent shall comply with the registration requirements of M. Bar R. 6(a), 10(a) and pay the Board's annual fee and the $20 assessment of the Lawyer's Fund for Client Protection. Respondent need not pay any charges for late payment that would be due at this time.

- b) The Board may immediately proceed to bring to Grievance Commission review and hearing any professional misconduct complaints that are now pending against the Respondent.
- c) The Board may file an Information directly with the Court concerning any new bar complaint made against the Respondent that the Board receives after the date of this order, without the necessity of any Grievance Commission review and hearing.
- d) In dealing with funds and property, in addition to the procedures set out in M. Bar R. 3.6(e), the Respondent will set up and comply with all of the provisions set out in this Court's order dated April 30, 1998, and in a letter from Joseph A. Troiano, Esq., C.P.A. to Geoffrey S. Welch, Esq., dated December 1, 1998, and in letters from Sonia Damon, Bookkeeper to this Court, dated June 1, 2000, and July 7, 2000.
- e) Respondent shall immediately and without any delay notify both the Court and the Board if the professional working relationship between the Respondent and Ms. Damon is terminated for any reason.
- f) The Board or its designated representative may periodically inspect and review all of the accounting and other financial records of the Respondent upon reasonable notice to him and subject to client confidentiality.
