

STATE OF MAINE

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

DOCKET NO. Bar-02-5

BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF THE BAR]	ORDER ON DEFENDANT
]	CHARLES G. WILLIAMS III'S
v.]	"MOTION IN OPPOSITION
]	TO PETITIONER'S MOTION
CHARLES G. WILLIAMS III, ESQ.]	FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL"

Defendant, Charles G. Williams III, has filed with Court two documents entitled "Motion in Opposition to Petitioner's Motion for Appointment of Counsel." In his motion, Mr. Williams objects "to the presentment of this motion, complaint and answer to any sitting justice of the Supreme Judicial Court pending the resolution of USDC #02-204 . . . See Motion for Recusal." In the light of Mr. Williams's announced desire that he wishes the Court to delay taking action on the pending matter until resolution of his suit brought in the United State District Court for the District of Maine, it is ordered that further action in connection with this matter be and hereby is stayed until further order of the Court.

DOCKET NO. Bar-02-5

BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF THE BAR]

v.]

CHARLES G. WILLIAMS III, ESQ.]

ORDER ON BOARD OF
OVERSEERS OF THE BAR'S
MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT
